TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT

The copyright to the Article identified above is transferred to OAHOST, Open-Access House of Science and Technology (hereinafter called OAHOST). The copyright transfer covers the sole right to print, publish, and distribute throughout the world the above article and parts thereof, including all revisions or versions and future editions, in all forms and media of expression – such as in its electronic form (offline, online) – now known or developed in the future.

OAHOST and Nano-Micro Letters (hereinafter called NML) will take, either in its own name or in that of the Author, any necessary steps to protect these rights against infringement by third parties. It will have the copyright notice inserted into all editions of the Work according to the provisions of the Universal Copyright Convention (UCC) and dutifully take care of all formalities in this connection, either in its own name or in that of the Author.

If the Author is an employee of the Government and performed this work as part of his employment, the Article is not subject to copyright protection. The Author transfers the publishing rights to OAHOST to the extent transferable.

By signing this Agreement, the author(s), and in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the employer, jointly and severally represent and warrant that the Article is original and has not been published, and that it contains no libelous statements and does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties, and that the Article has not been published in whole or in part elsewhere, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein. If each author’s signature does not appear below, the signing author(s) represent that they sign this Agreement as authorized agents for and on behalf of all the authors, and that this Agreement and authorization is made on behalf of all the authors. The signing author(s) (and, in the case of a Work Made For Hire, the signing employer) also represent and warrant that they have the full power to enter into this Agreement and to make the grants contained herein.

The Corresponding Author signs for and accepts responsibility for releasing this material on behalf of any and all Co-Authors.

Signature(s) of Author(s): ____________________________ Date: ____________________________

If the Article has been prepared as a Work Made For Hire, the transfer should be signed by both the employee (above) and the employer (below):
